AIMS & OBJECTIVES

Course aim: To build confidence in trying different art material in varying ways. To support expression through play. You'll experiment with techniques such as string art, decoupage, ombre art, stencil art and splatter art to create an original collection of work. Sessions will be flexible with guided demonstrations and the freedom to explore and expand on your own.

Learning Objectives: To successfully complete the course, you will:

1. Attend a minimum of 6 sessions.
2. Reflect on your own learning.
3. Contribute to group conversations.
4. Use experimental art techniques, such as string art, decoupage, ombre art, stencil art and splatter painting.
5. Experiment with various art materials including paints, soft lead pencils, papers and stencils.
6. Develop confidence in expressing personal responses to techniques, processes and outcomes.
7. Contribute to peer feedback (S).
8. Participate in collaborative art making (S).
